BATTLING NELSON SAVES CHILDREN

Mother and Two Little Tots in a Runaway Grasped from Death's Jaws.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Feb. 25.—Bat-tling Nelson entered into a new class to-day, the one created by the commission appointed by Andrew Carnegie to hunt after a hero, clinging to the neck of a frightened horse that was dishing madly to destruction down a mountain road with a woman and children in the carriage, the lightweight champion of the world, after being dragged several rods and painfully cut and bruised, succeeded in stopping the maddened beast and saving the lives of the mother and her little ones.

Nelson is spending a few days in the mountains at Blue Sulphur, near here, prior to going into training at Philadelphia. He was swinging about a mountain road this afternoon when a runaway horse, driven by Mrs. Frank Howard, and her children, came dashing towards him. Instantly realizing the peril of the situation, Nelson stepped to one side, and as the horse neared him he sprang at it, clasped it around the neck and thus impeding its progress, suffered himself to be dragged until the exhausted animal came to a sudden stop. A couple rods from the danger point in the road, Mrs. Howard warmly thanked the pugilist for his gallant conduct and urged him to go with her and have his injuries attended to, but Nelson made light of them and continued his walk.

PRACTICE GAMES.

Baltimore Eastern League Will Play Richmond Nine in April.

The team from the Baltimore Eastern League will play the Richmond nine of the Virginia State League in Richmond on April 10th (Easter Monday) and again on the following Saturday, April 21st. Manager Hugh Jennings, of the Baltimore bunch, says that he has a fine line-up for next season, and will take the flag in the Eastern League. The exhibition games here will be watched with interest, for it will be the first showing of the aggregation that Manager Charlie Shaffer has craved together.

There will be some other exhibition games here before the regular season opens on April 25th. All of the Richmond players will report a few days after the first of April and will do practice work on the diamond here until they are ready to go up against the other teams in the Virginia League.

THE HIGHLANDERS IN THE HILL CITY

New York American's Arrange Game with Lynchburg Virginia League Team.

GIANTS ALSO WANT A GAME

Al. Orth, a Lynchburg Man, to Twirl for the New Yorkers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., February 25.—Clark Griffith, manager of the New York American team, has arranged for a game with the Lynchburg team, in the Virginia League, here on April 16th. Al Orth, who is a resident of this city, will twirl for the Highlanders, and it is expected that an immense crowd will see this game.

John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, has asked for a game with the local team during the last week in March, and Manager Grim is endeavoring to arrange for the game, though the time is a trifle early, as it is not expected to have the local team report before the first week in April.

The Virginia League will not open its season until April 25th, when the Lynchburg "Cobblers" will play the Richmond team at Richmond.

SWIMMING CONTESTS CONCLUDED IN NEW YORK

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, February 25.—In the final contest for the water polo championship, one of the principal events in the National Amateur Athletic Union swimming championship tournament, which was concluded last night at the New York Athletic Club, the Chicago Athletic Association team defeated the New York Athletic Club by a score of four to three. C. M. Daniels, who has been smashing records every day during the tournament, kept up his reputation by winning the one-half mile championship in new American figures. He won by fully thirty-five yards in 12:29 3-5. The best previous American record was 12:39 1-2, held by H. E. Brewer, of San Francisco.

INDOOR TENNIS HONORS.

Hackett and Alexander Won Championship in Doubles.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, February 25.—H. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander, the old champions of Yale and Princeton, respectively, today won the national doubles championship for indoor lawn tennis on the courts of the Seventh Regiment Armory, Athletic Association. They defeated Wylie C. Grant, of New York, and Irving C. Wright, of Boston, by the score of 6-1, 6-1, 6-2. The winning pair fairly camped at the net, and by good work at serving and volleying outplayed the opposing team. Alexander's remarkable racket work stamped him as one of the fastest and most accurate players now upon the American courts.

The consolation singles was brought to an end by William B. Craig, Jr., defeating Harry F. Allen two sets to one. The national championship singles will be finished Monday, W. F. Grant, one-time holder of the title, meeting Edwin P. Fisher, for the honors. The summary: National championship doubles—Harold Hackett and Frederick B. Alexander, West Side Lawn Tennis Club, of New York, defeated Wylie C. Grant and Irving C. Wright, New York Lawn Tennis Club, and Longwood Cricket Club, of Boston, 6-1, 6-1, 6-2.

TOLL ALL THE SAD BELLS TO END ONE MARVIN HART

Tommy Burns, Twenty Pounds Lighter, Halts Would-Be Champ's Aspirations.

LOOKS LIKE A DISSOLUTION

Ryan and Hart Partnership Appears to Be Connected by a Cotton Thread.

LOS ANGELES, February 25.—By those who took Marvin Hart's claim to the world's championship title seriously, Tommy Burns, of Chicago, may now be considered the heavyweight champion.

Burns decisively outpointed Hart Friday night at the Pacific Athletic Club pavilion and got the decision at the end of the twentieth round.

From start to finish, with the possible exception of the tenth and the twelfth rounds, when Hart had a very small advantage, Burns outfought the bigger man, outgeneraled him and beat him at every point in the game of boxing. At times Burns, although handicapped in weight and height, made Hart look like a novice.

In the opening round Burns was very nervous and lacked confidence. After this, however, he quickly seized Hart up and began a systematic attack on his face and body with straight lefts. In the third round he started the blood flowing from Hart's nose, and kept it running in almost every round thereafter. In the fifth Burns caught Hart over the right eye, and in the following rounds battered the optic until it was closed. The left eye also was badly marked, and Hart's face presented a bloody sight practically throughout the fight.
